

Social and Personal

From 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the German-American Aid Association of Virginia will keep their anniversary by an entertainment in Sanger Hall.

Vocal and musical selections will vary the programme and refreshments will be served by club members. The following young ladies, who comprise the Committee of Arrangements—Miss Eleanor Steinbrecher, Miss Pauline Grazer, Miss Tillie Volkman and Miss Minnie Metzger give a pressing invitation to the senior members of the association to be present.

Postponed Till May 14th.

The annual excursion of the A. P. V. A. to Jamestown, which was to have been given Friday, May 13th, has been postponed until Saturday, May 14th. The excursionists will leave the Old Dominion wharf promptly at 7:30 in the Berkeley. The size and draught of the vessel will prevent the stop at Brandon on the return trip, and the acceptance of Mrs. Harrison's graceful and much appreciated hospitality. While this is a matter of regret, it will result in a longer stop at Jamestown and a better opportunity to see the first excavations and those made there during the past year, which are most interesting.

A delicious lunch will be served on board the steamer under the direction of Miss Betty Ellyson, whose success on former occasions gives every guarantee of what may be expected on May 14th.

Enoch Arden Recital.

Interest centers in the Enoch Arden recital to be given in the auditorium of the Woman's Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Eugenia L. Aunspaugh will be the reader and her sister the pianist. The performance of reader and musician has received highest praise from the best critics, and expectation concerning the rendition of to-night is eager and enthusiastic. The entertainment is for the benefit of the Enoch Arden fund, and a number of leading society women in Richmond are its patrons.

Recital at Woman's College.

A charming recital will be given Saturday evening, May 7th, in the chapel of the Woman's College by the musical pupils of Mrs. M. A. Martin and Professor Jacob Rehnardt.

Decorations will be in palms and red carnations and the programme will be both elaborate and attractive. The interest felt by the friends of the directors, the relatives of the students and the patrons of the college will doubtless bring together a large and appreciative audience.

Excursion to Williamsburg.

A delightful feature of Saturday next, May 7th, will be the excursion to Williamsburg, given under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Society of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Lunch will be served in Williamsburg for excursionists at the Star restaurant. The Williamsburg Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will sell ice cream and luscious home-made caramels on the "Green."

Quite a large party of students from the Woman's College and the Richmond Art Club will accompany the excursion, and the lovely May weather gives every promise for the day and the trip.

May Queen Festival.

The May Queen Festival, for the benefit of Chalmers Hospital, will be given May 24th and 25th, in the grounds of the Woman's College with the following young ladies to take part: Misses Alice O'Brien, Lucille Epps, Pearl Lichtenstein, Violet Simon, Bessie Epps, Viola Saunders, Lucille Palmistry, Gladys Palmistry, Agnes Parrish, Lillian Turner, Hazel Strang, Dorothy Clendon, May Rose, Katherine Grimes, Fanny Anderson, Allie Hord, Annie Davis, Raymond Gardin, Hattie Bryant, Ethel Jackson, Lorraine Cunningham, Lella Lacy, Ruby Hawks, Sallie Harbaugh, Margaret Anderson, Doran Davis, Josephine Harbaugh, Otis Brauer, Madge Clendon, Louise Cooper, Alma Acres, Alma Bloomberg, Mary Mauss, Louise Jones, Georgia Froelich, Virginia Baker, Naomi Walkup, Cora Larry, Elizabeth Hancock, Allie Palmer, Jessie McMin, Janet Christian, Irene Crane, Bessie Cooper, Louise White, Genevieve Leech, Onelia Halloran, Genevieve Burruss, Mary Lyman, Pearl Trauer, Florence Lichtenstein, Frances Southern, Della Stovall, Florabelle Rosenbaum, Alice Carlton, Elsie Walthall, Florence Stevenson, Margaret Walker, Annie Woodward, Lella Curry, Virginia Lacy, Celeste Johns, Fannie Lichtenstein, Mary Huxter, Ida Holdcroft and Florence Leech.

A May pole dance will follow the crowning of the queen and complete the pretty picture made by the little people in their flower-like costumes.

Personal Mention.

Miss Elizabeth Eggleston will leave Thursday for New York, where she will visit relatives in Brooklyn and on Lake George until October.

Miss Annie Brady, formerly of Rockbridge county, and now of Abingdon, Va., is visiting Mrs. John W. Richardson, in her home, No. 1312 Floyd Avenue.

Mrs. James Coburn and her sons, J. D. and Winfield, left Tuesday for an extended trip to California and Mexico. They will take the World's Fair at St. Louis before their return home.

The rummage sale held by the Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will continue through the week. Contributions are earnestly desired and the help and presence of the different chapter members at No. 197 East Main Street, where the sale is going on, is asked for.

Mr. Charles H. Bosley, district passenger agent for the Norfolk and Western Railroad, has gone for a short visit to the World's Fair at St. Louis.

The Washington Post of yesterday contained the following paragraph of interest to society people here:

Mr. and Mrs. Henry St. George Tucker entertained a dinner party on Saturday evening, complimentary to Mr. Tucker's mother, Mrs. John Randolph Tucker. Among the guests were Hon. Admiral and Mrs. Higginson, General and Mrs. Elliott, Captain and Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Isham Hornsby, Judge Sharp, of Baltimore, and Attorney-General Whippley, of Philadelphia.

The Ladies' Morning Musicals will meet this morning at 10 o'clock.

Owing to the wonderful popularity which JELL-O has attained since its introduction, many inferior imitations have been placed on the market by unscrupulous manufacturers, who hope to make a profit from their goods sold in competition with JELL-O on the strength of our extensive advertising.

Beware of the grocer who tries to sell you something else, claiming it is "Just as good" as JELL-O. No honest grocer will offer to substitute for JELL-O.

JELL-O is sold and used more extensively throughout the world than any similar food product.

If your grocer can't supply you, please send his name.

THE WELCOME.

BY THOMAS OSBORNE DAVIS.

Thomas Osborne Davis was born at Malloy, county Cork, Ireland, in 1815, and died in Dublin, Sept. 16, 1845. He was graduate of Trinity college, Dublin. He was admitted to the bar in 1833. He was one of the founders of the Dublin Nation. He was also founder of the young Ireland political party.

COME in the evening, or come in the morning;
Come when you're looked for, or come without warning;
Kisses and welcome you'll find here before you,
And the oftener you come here, the more I'll adore you!

Light is my heart since the day we were plighted;
Red is my cheek that they told me was blighted;
The green of the trees looks far greener than ever,
And the linnets are singing,
"True lovers don't sever!"

I'll pull you sweet flowers, to wear if you choose them!
Or, after you've kissed them, they'll lie on my bosom;
I'll fetch from the mountain its breeze to inspire you,
I'll fetch from my fancy a tale that won't tire you.

O, your step's like the rain to the summer-vexed farmer,
Or saunter and shield to a knight without armor;
I'll sing you sweet songs till the stars rise above me,
Then, wandering, I'll wish you in silence to love me.

We'll look through the trees at the cliff and the eyrie;
We'll tread round the path on the track of the fairy;
We'll look on the stars, and we'll list to the river
Till you ask of your darling what gift you can give her.

O, she'll whisper you, "Love, as unchangeably beaming,
And trust, when in secret, most tenderly streaming;
Till the starlight of heaven above us shall quiver,
As our souls flow in one down Eternity's river."

So come in the evening, or come in the morning;
Come when you're looked for, or come without warning;
Kisses and welcome you'll find here before you,
And the oftener you come here, the more I'll adore you!

Light is my heart since the day we were plighted;
Red is my cheek that they told me was blighted;
The green of the trees looks far greener than ever,
And the linnets are singing,
"True lovers don't sever!"

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

with Mrs. W. H. O. McGeehan this evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Mr. J. W. Briggs is the guest of friends in Danville, Va.

Mrs. William H. Bailey and little daughter, of Richmond, are visiting Mrs. E. C. King, of Charlottesville.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. McGuire have returned from a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Fendleton, of Frederick Hall, Va.

Miss Mary Garnett and Floyd Alvey attended a German given Tuesday night at Henry Clay Inn, Ashland, Va.

May 17th, will be Confederate Memorial Day in Norfolk. The Pickett-Buchanan Chapter of the U. S. D. C., have adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That each member of this organization pledge herself to do all in her power to make the day which has been chosen by Pickett-Buchanan Camp as Memorial Day, a day devoted to the memory of those who followed the stars and stripes in every way endeavor to induce the citizens of this city to donate the flowers for this purpose, and, as in many other Southern cities, omit the decoration of all graves except those of the Southern soldiers and sailors. Then at a glance one would be able to designate the grave of the veteran, and for that grave there would be an abundance of flowers. Any day in the year for other loved ones, but this day only for the soldier."

The outlook for the party to the World's Fair, St. Louis, under the chaperonage of Miss Betty Ellyson and Mrs. Anna Rahm, is extremely pleasant. Mrs. Rahm will make an advance trip to secure pleasant quarters and perfect details in arrangement, which will be shortly made known. In the meanwhile parties wishing information can get it by writing or calling on Miss Ellyson at No. 10 East Franklin Street.

GIVE SEEDS SATURDAY

No Packages Will be Given to the Children Until Day After To-morrow.

COUPONS ON SATURDAY

All the Children, Including Manchester and Suburbs, Are Included in the Offer.

All yesterday afternoon the school children poured into the business office of The Times-Dispatch in streams to secure the free flower seeds distributed by the paper in the effort to beautify the yards and homes of the city. So constant and so numerous were the demands of the bright-faced, eager children that it took the services of two or three employees to receive the coupons and hand out the seed packages.

Owing to the demands upon the time of the business office and the interruption of other work, it has been determined to give out seeds on Saturday and only on that day. Consequently no packages will be given out to-day nor to-morrow. All day Saturday the office will be open for this purpose, and all school children from every school, private and public, in Richmond or Manchester, are requested to bring their coupons on Saturday at any hour between 9 A. M. and 6 P. M. The offer has been extended to the children of all the schools of the city, private schools as well as public schools, Manchester as well as Richmond. Bring the coupons properly filled out on Saturday between 9 A. M. and 6 P. M. and get the packages of seed.

The Times-Dispatch has asked for florists of the city to give directions for growing flowers, such as are grown from the seeds given away. Mr. Mann, of Mann and Brown, florists, West Broad Street, gives the following directions:

In the case of morning glories, cypress and running vines and plants, something should be provided for the vines to climb on. A trellis, or string or frames of any kind or a suitable fence will do. Any ordinary garden soil is suitable. It should be spaded or dug deep and the surface of the area thus worked should be chopped fine or put over with a fork. All the flowers of which seeds are given away should be planted where they will get as much sunshine as possible, and none need be planted to deep. The roots will go downward as the plant rises upward. Give the plants all the sun possible. All the ground planted should be worked thoroughly, and the clods pulverized or crumbled up before the seeds are sown. When the seeds begin to come up, thin out if needed. Later on, when the seeds come up, the plants are growing, work the soil around them and water it when necessary. Loosening the earth a little will make the plants grow better.

A City of Flowers.

The Times-Dispatch, with the aid and co-operation of the school children, hopes to make Richmond a city of flowers, and thus to make every home more beautiful. Bare, vacant ground can thus be made beautiful instead of unsightly. Every child who plants the seeds thus have a flower bed or garden of her own. Besides this, The Times-Dispatch will give a prize of $5 for the prettiest yard or flower bed. To the five next prettiest yards prizes of $2 each will be given, and to the prize ranking next in order prizes of one dollar each will be given. Besides these sixteen prizes, other prizes of books will be given to the children whose work is worthy of commendation.

Cut the coupon out of Saturday paper. Remember, no seeds will be given out until Saturday. Then all who have coupons may call and get the packages.

HONOR DEAD JURIST.

General Meeting of the Bar to be Held To-morrow Afternoon.

A meeting of the bar of Virginia will be held in the United States District Court room at Richmond on Friday afternoon, May 6th, 1904, at 2 o'clock, to take suitable action in memory of the late Hon. Charles H. Simonton, of Charleston, S. C. All members of the bar of Virginia are invited to attend, and those from other States will also be cordially welcomed. Resolutions will be adopted and a committee will be appointed to present them next Tuesday to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, at the hearing of the May term, at the city. The Simonton was an honored member of this court, and a large assemblage of lawyers is expected to convene in testimony of the affection and esteem with which he was regarded.

The bars of the States of West Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina have already taken action, and will send committees here to present their resolutions and make oral addresses in tribute to the dead jurist. Next Tuesday, therefore, the court will be devoted chiefly to these memorial addresses and presentation of resolutions. Some members of the bar of Virginia bar will be selected to present the resolutions and to make addresses.

Will Get Their Diplomas.

The commencement exercises of the Virginia Hospital Training School, will be held in the amphitheatre of the University College of Medicine, on Friday night, at 8 o'clock.

The invitations which have been sent out contain the names of the graduating class, which is composed of the following ladies: Misses Elizabeth Marie Curtis, Pearl Fitzhugh Peak, Henrietta, Belle, Naomi Ann Simmons, Edna Jeannette Davies, Clara Elizabeth Middleton, Mary Virginia Lambert and Annie May Snodgrass.

Library Leaflets Given Out.

The State Library has made another notable advance in its efficiency by publishing leaflets, one of which is given out with each book that is sent out and to each visitor to the Library. The leaflets will be changed each month. The first one is a publication by Sir William Jones, of Alcazar, "Ode on the State."

Mr. Taylor's Estate.

DAILY FASHION HINTS.

Child's Russian Blouse.

No. 4344—Numerous as the days of the year are the Russian styles in children's wear, but none seem to be more popular than the plain style, opening on the shoulder and in double-breasted effect. The cause of the popularity is not far to seek. The design shows at a glance that it is easy to make and is a suitable tub suit. No turelows or trimming, save a plain colored band, which forms a facing on the left side. The pattern is made up of a front and back, Bishop sleeve, belt, cuffs and collar. The pattern also includes the regulation style of bloomers. For a cheviot, fleece-backed plique, serge or flannel suit, this is a good model to follow as it combines not only utility and good style, but is a simple little garment to make.

Sizes—2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 years.

On receipt of 30 cents this pattern will be sent to any address. All orders must be directed to THE LITTLE POLKS PATTERNS CO., No. 75 Fifth Avenue, New York. When ordering, please do not fail to mention number.
